Office of

P. A. KINDERSON
CHIEF SPECIAL AGENT

San Francisco, June 27th, 1910.

TO PEACE OFFICERS:-----

CAPT. WALL

At one thirty-five A.M. to-day train second number one was held up by three masked men about three miles North of Ogden who relieved a number of passengers and employes of money and jewelry and made their escape. The amount of money as near as we can figure aggregated three hundred and fifty dollars, there being nine watches, one wedding ring and a pair of earrings among the jewelry. Two of the men weighed about one hundred and sixty pounds and the third one was a little heavier, one had a black slouch hat with a greasy band and another had a brown hat. Description of watches taken as follows:--Conductor H.O. Williams, 21 jewel, old open case gold filled movement Elgin No. 9670996, Brakeman H.F. Franklin 21 jewel 940 Hamilton movement No. 254909, Fireman J.W. Hill, Illinois Watch Co. Bund special old open case No. 6803766, A.J. Bettles, passenger, 15 jewel open case 18 size Elgin movement No. 12244344. Revolver taken from baggageman Reed is Colt's six shooter No. 44911.

Please lookout for parties and if located, arrest, hold and wire us at our expense.
